Re: Moshe Weisz v. Sarma Collections, Inc.
Docket No. 21-CV-06230

Dear Judge Halpern:

Application granted; briefing schedule extended as set forth herein.

SO ORDERED.

Philip M. Halpern
United States District Judge

Dated: White Plains, New York
February 17, 2022

As you know, this office represents the defendant in the above-captioned matter. The Court previously set a briefing schedule requiring defendant's Motion to Dismiss to be served, but not filed, by today February 16, 2022. This letter is written to request a two-day extension of defendant's service of the anticipated motion. This request is made with consent of plaintiff's counsel.

Under the revised briefing schedule, defendant's Motion to Dismiss shall be served but not filed on February 18, 2022, and Opposition should be served but not filed on March 11, 2022. The reply date of March 25, 2022, can remain.

The undersigned was out of town all week, last week, and is running a bit behind on the preparation of the motion.

This is a first request to extend the briefing schedule and is made with the consent of opposing counsel.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

BARRON & NEWBURGER, P.C.
